This renovated three-bedroom, two-bathroom duplex sits in Santiago de la Ribera, within the San Javier area, and is offered fully furnished at 239,000 euros. Spread across 97 square metres of built space on a 142-square-metre plot, the layout balances generous living areas with practical storage. The ground floor opens onto a terrace suited to outdoor dining, while a balcony adds a further spot to take in the surroundings. A private rooftop terrace completes the outdoor picture, providing space for sunbathing and relaxed gatherings. Air conditioning and parking are included, and residents have access to a communal pool. Sea views, a garden, and a storage room round out the key features....(Ask for More Details!)
