Remarkable villa built with second to none materials perched on the hillside of Residential La Sella offering splendid panoramic sea and mountain views. A large driveway leads up from the gated plot to the exterior parking area, garage and main entrance. All the spaces inside are arranged around the beautiful lounge with its eye catching designer fireplace. Adjacent lies the library and there is a double bedroom with en-suite bath and dressing room. All these main rooms are flooded with natural light and abut on the pool terrace. Another fireplace can be found in the large separate diner. Both fireplaces are custom made. The designer kitchen with American fridge and...(Ask for More Details!)
