Exclusive villa in the centre of Residencial La Sella with several terraces and panoramic views of the mountains and the Mediterranean coast. The villa, built in 1998, is of a solid construction with high quality materials and outstanding elements such as tosca stone arches. A Mediterranean style design with rustic touches combines very well with generously sized rooms connecting always with the beautiful landscape providing brightness and well being. The entrance hall with its high ceiling and elegant steel spiral staircase leading to the upper terrace is a real eye-catcher. In front of the living room is the main covered terrace with its beautiful panoramic views stretching over the Segã ria...(Ask for More Details!)
