A Characterful Country Home with Pool, Land & Incredible Potential Step inside this wonderfully individual home and you immediately get a sense of what makes it special. Refurbished by the current owners, the property combines modern comforts and thoughtful improvements with the original character and personality of the house. The atmosphere is relaxed, welcoming and unmistakably homely, with a slightly quirky, personal feel that gives the property its own unique charm. Modern features have been carefully introduced to complement, rather than overpower, the style and character of the original building. The main house offers five bedrooms, generous living spaces and plenty of additional room to make your own....(Ask for More Details!)
