Attractive and Unique Countyhouse with privacy in the rural part of Albardanera next to La Sella, Pedreguer Finca located in the beautiful rural area of Albardanera, Pedreguer, bordering the La Sella Residential Resort and enjoying access to the excellent infrastructure of this development, including its service and leisure centre, all within short distance. The property features an older section that was built in 2002 with great attention to detail in a rustic style, using authentic materials and elements. This area connects directly to a more modern two-storey section with a tower. Each part accounts for approximately half of the total built area. The plot is fully fenced and surrounded by...(Ask for More Details!)
