Living between the port and the center of Denia! Bright corner apartment on the second floor with elevator, in a recently built building located in a privileged and central location. The apartment, with a modern and functional style, is sold fully furnished and ready to move into. The large double-glazed windows provide abundant natural light, especially in the living-dining room, which opens to the outside balcony. The independent, fully equipped kitchen is separated from the living room by a partition. It has three bedrooms, including the main one with an en-suite bathroom, and a second bathroom with a shower. It is part of a private community with garden areas and...(Ask for More Details!)
