An intrinsically beautiful villa with a unique design offering generous, smartly distributed living spaces in the prestigious Marquesa VI area of Denia. Nestled beside lush protected nature, it enjoys uninterrupted views of the southern mountain range, the Mediterranean sea and year-round winter sun. The U-shaped ground floor is bordered along its entire front by a terrace where the pergola creates captivating light effects. The villa's two entrances converge in the open foyer, leading to the spacious and bright living and dining areas and the kitchen on one side. The independent office-style kitchen with a rustic design includes a breakfast area and direct access to the rear garden, featuring an additional...(Ask for More Details!)
