EXCLUSIVE - Casa Venterro is a large urban property just outside the village of Los Romanes with all of its amenities. The road to the house is tarmac and there is a driveway for several cars. The 2,000 m2 plot is mainly made up of rustic land with almond and olive trees and also raisin beds in front of the property. There is a small out building and a 2 story building that would have been used for animals many years ago. There is a covered front porch ideal for alfresco dining and all of the windows are double glazed with wreckers. The house consists of a large hallway with...(Ask for More Details!)
