In one of the most sought-after residential areas of JÁvea, in the green and peaceful neighborhood of Pinosol, just a few minutes from the popular Grand Café Flo, this lovingly maintained villa is set on a spacious plot of approximately 2,000 m². The house impresses with a well-thought-out single-level layout: On the left side is the private sleeping area, featuring a generous master bedroom. This area is complemented by a separate dressing room and an independent bathroom. The dressing room also offers additional potential: by removing the existing built-in wardrobes, this space can easily be converted into an office or a small fourth bedroom. The central living area includes a bright...(Ask for More Details!)
