Villa in the exclusive La Sella residential area with stunning open views of the Mediterranean coast and the surrounding mountains. Built in 2005 in the western part of La Sella, the property enjoys panoramic views of the valley, the sea and the Sierra de Segã ria, offering spectacular sunsets throughout the year. From the carport, stairs lead down to the main floor, which is on the same level as the swimming pool, barbecue area and spacious terraces. Inside, a generous entrance hall opens into a bright living-dining room with various windows framing the sea and filling the space with natural light. From here, there is access to the covered terrace and...(Ask for More Details!)
