Delightful top-floor corner apartment in El Carrascal II overlooking La Sella Golf. This delightful top-floor corner apartment is located in El Carrascal II, frontline to the La Sella Golf course and surrounded by the excellent infrastructure of La Sella Residential. Built in 2004, the El Carrascal II apartments feature an intriguing architectural style that blends elements from both northern and southern Spain, complemented by high-quality materials such as marble flooring throughout and marble wall tiles in both bathrooms. The apartment is accessed through a spacious covered entrance area with lift access connecting directly to the basement level, where the assigned parking space and storage room are located. Inside, a generous reception...
