Charming village house, beautifully renovated, in the heart of Alpatró A charming village house, carefully renovated with great attention to traditional details and equipped with all modern comforts. Ideally situated in the centre of Alpatró, in the heart of La Vall de Gallinera. Built in 1932, this house exudes history and retains the charm of traditional architecture, reflecting the culture and heritage of the area. It is located on Alpatró's main street, in a village that is a little gem in its own right, with traditional houses, squares and well-maintained streets that preserve the character and essence of rural life. An impressive wooden entrance door leads into the ground floor,...(Ask for More Details!)
