Magnificent country property with two independent houses and stunning views: This property includes two adjoining two-storey houses with a total built area of approximately 250 m². Together, they offer 6 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, 2 living rooms, a dining room, and versatile spaces. It is ideal for a large family residence, holiday home, or a rural project. One of the standout features of this estate is its unique construction, as the houses are clad with local natural stone. This traditional craftsmanship not only gives the property a distinctive character but also ensures extraordinary durability, built to last a lifetime. Outside, the estate features a swimming pool with filtration system, a garage,...(Ask for More Details!)
