Welcome to this lovely and charming penthouse in the heart of popular La Mata – just about 800 metres from the beach and with restaurants, cafes and everything you need just around the corner! The property has been renovated with care, while many of the charming original details have been preserved. Here, the important parts have already been given a lift with a completely renovated bathroom, freshly painted walls, updated electricity and new appliances. The 55 square meters are well-planned and offer two bedrooms, a modern bathroom and a bright living room in open connection to the kitchen. The practical kitchen island/bar creates a natural transition between the kitchen and...(Ask for More Details!)
